

SAYS SHIPYARD STRIKE SETTLED

Chairman Hurley Announces 25,000 Men to Resume Work Next Monday.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Settlement of the Pacific coast shipyard strike situation by agreement of 25,000 employees of the Seattle and Portland yards to go back to work Monday was announced Wednesday by the shipping board. The men agreed to abide by the decision of the labor adjustment board.

Chairman Hurley of the shipping board, said this action assures resumption of work in all Pacific coast ship yards, where about 10 percent of the board's great ship building program is under construction. Work on many ships has been delayed by unrest not only at Seattle and Portland, but also at other points, including San Francisco. Differences at the other places, however, were composed some time ago.

In advising the shipping board of the settlement of the strike, the adjustment board said that its hearings in Seattle and Portland were progressing satisfactorily.

As a result of a misinterpretation of messages from the federal wage adjustment board, Chairman Hurley of the shipping board announced today that the ship yard strikes had been settled at Portland as well as at Seattle, Wash. The adjustment board is now engaged in an effort to compose the differences between employers and workers at Portland and Mr. Hurley explained Wednesday night that a message from Seattle relating to the settlement at Seattle led to his error.

ARREST FIVE GERMANS

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Five Germans employed in a shipyard here were arrested Wednesday by agents of the department of justice and sent to Ellis island pending further investigation. They were charged with violating the proclamation of President Wilson relating to the employment of enemy aliens in industries having connection with the nation's war preparations.

You Can't Brush Or Wash Out Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. This is done by about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, OCT. 18, 1917.

Again the stars are adverse, for although Jupiter is in benefit aspect, the kindly rule is more than offset by the evil power of Uranus and Mars.

It should be fairly favorable for certain commercial transactions, but there is a sign warning against the "darker of too great undertakings." Contracts are not well expected.

Lawyers should benefit to a certain extent under this way, for the stars indicate much litigation in cases that exact damages for property destruction or involve questions of personal liberty.

There is a planet that seems to indicate a subordination of civil law to military law in unexpected times and for unusual reasons.

The new moon of this month now two days old is read as indicating much excitement in the country. The revenue should be most satisfactory to the government, if not to those who pay it, and the outlook for general good fairly promising.

The malefics in the ninth house foreshadow serious trouble over shipping or shipbuilding.

There is a sign foreshadowing some sort of a political sensation, probably in the result of an election or the action of a man who wields great authority.

The posing of the planets again appears to presage serious efforts toward peace.

Italy comes under a government of the stars that is likely to encourage revolution to such an extent that even the papal power is threatened.

Mars appears to indicate that a general or military commander of lower rank will make a serious mistake.

Honors to literary folk are prognosticated and at the same time discredit for some journalist who ignores the war conditions is foreshadowed.

Women should be exceedingly careful not to indulge in any emotional weakness during this rule of the planets as they are likely to make real any fears they entertain.

Persons whose birthdate it is should pass a very quiet year. These subjects of Libra have certain Scorpio characteristics usually.

Children born on this day may be too impetuous and too fond of company. These boys and girls born with Mercury as their principal planet are more talented than practical.

bill. Five seconds has passed and Richard Carslake was pointing his revolver at her, as the last second passed she pretends to get the diamond from her handbag, but grabs her revolver and aiming at Carslake, she fires. The shot hits his hand and he drops his revolver. Pearl jumps into his car and escapes. Tomorrow Mae Murray and Hobart Bosworth will be seen in a thrilling six-reel drama called "A Mormon Maid," in which the former is seen as the daughter of a hardy pioneer under the dominance of the Mormon church. She is coveted by one of the church elders, both she and her father being led to believe that the marriage of one will save the other from being forced into polygamy. The maid believes she is to be married to the man she loves, but discovers to her horror that she is to be united to the cruel elder who already has five wives. How she tricks him and escapes the marriage, running away with the man she loves is depicted in a manner that is thrilling in the extreme, it is said. A two-reel Keystone comedy called "Thrust," is also on the bill for tomorrow.

AT THE CASTLE.

"Open Faces," which pleased large audiences at the Castle theater yesterday, will be shown again today. Jack Gardner, a popular favorite, is the star.

Tomorrow and Saturday the Castle picture is entitled "The Dormant Power," and stars Ethel Clayton and Montague Love. The scenes of this five-act drama are laid for the most part in a little town on the Mexican border, where the victim of an unjust law has sought refuge. Miss Clayton, in the role of this exile's beautiful daughter, who is loved by two men, gives an excellent characterization. How the numerous exciting events work out to her final happiness, makes a pleasing photoplay. Another episode of "The Fighting Trail," the great serial, and a funny Charlie Chaplin comedy, are also shown both days.

The Castle theater is endeavoring to arrange for a special attraction in the personal appearance of Myrtle Stedman, well known screen star, who is now making a tour of the country. Miss Stedman, besides being a popular photoplay actress, is also a talented vocalist and during her visits to the theaters she offers song selections as well as personally meeting the patrons.

AT THE ORPHEUM.

The new bill starting at the Orpheum theater today has for its headline feature Menlo Moore's "Flirtation," a musical comedy with a college atmosphere. Anderson and Goines in a comedy playlet called "The Ghost of a Coon," is another act that will please Orpheum patrons. Lawrence and Edwards, in a singing and musical specialty, and the Kremka Bros., comedy acrobats, round out the bill.

"SOUTHERN PRIDE"

A typical southern story, with realistic settings, pleasing incidents and an attractive star is shown at the LaSalle today. Gail Kane, a talented and good-looking girl, plays the daughter of a proud southern family in poor circumstances. Her work is quiet, consistent and natural throughout. The story is sufficiently novel to hold the attention and the settings are true to the southern locality. A good supporting company and careful direction make the picture good entertainment.

Anita Kane, in "The Girl Angle," is tomorrow's feature.

"Life's Whirlpool," the photoplay starring Ethel Barrymore and today's big feature at the Auditorium. The piece was written and directed by Lionel Barrymore, a brother of Ethel, especially for her and the exterior scenes were photographed at the home of the star. Miss Barrymore has a beautiful summer home at Taylor Point, near Mamaroneck, N. Y. The grounds and house are most appropriate for the settings called for by the scenario and Mr. Barrymore persuaded his sister to allow her house to be used as a background. This beautiful home has never before been seen on the screen, and thousands of her admirers everywhere will be interested to see Ethel Barrymore's home as shown on the screen. The star entertained the entire company while the picture was being produced at her home.
